BUYER'S INTERACTION DURING BUSINESS HOURS AT THE SHOWS

BUYERS' FEEDBACK

European Buyers on their sourcing trips .....

I am on the lookout for home decoration products for my company. This is a family business started by my uncle John, whose passion for design. So far, so good—I've already come across a few impressive pieces. I source products globally, but Indian products stand out for their uniqueness and are hard to find elsewhere. The people in the UK have a great appreciation for Indian handicrafts, and their charm never fails to attract attention.

Martin Tennant, UK

I have been visiting the fair for over 10 years. My focus is on decorative garden products. People in Germany truly appreciate Indian craftsmanship, which is why I specifically chose to source items here; they are handmade, unique, and beautifully crafted. While the current economic situation may be a bit uncertain, I remain optimistic that everything will turn out well.

Martina Mensing, Germany

My company, Peña Vargas S.A., has been dealing beds, headboards and auxiliary bedroom furniture since 1931. We have greatly benefited from this fantastic fair, which consistently showcases a diverse range of high-quality Indian products. As a wholesaler, this is my sixth time attending, with a particular focus on sourcing exceptional furniture pieces. The quality and pricing of Indian products never fail to impress, which is why I keep returning year after year.

Jesus, Spain

European Buyers on their sourcing trips .....

This is my first time at the fair, though I already have experience with Indian products, which is why I decided to come. I am from Karakeer Deco and we aspire to produce great design pieces with character, honesty and beauty. I am specifically looking for home decor items like lamps. Indian products reflect the culture beautifully, with intricate craftsmanship and detailed, handmade designs that truly stand out.

Diane, France

I represent Zuiver- Tomorrow's Designs for Today's Interiors, focused on creating a comfortable, welcoming home, the brand offers contemporary furniture, lighting, and accessories. I am looking for large and beautiful furniture pieces that stand out. The quality is noticeably better than what's available from other countries, and the craftsmanship is truly premium, making these items highly sought after.

Caroline, The Netherlands

My company is Mester Grønn and I am looking for flower pots and interior products, ornaments and rugs. This is my 15th visit to the Indian Expo and I am enjoying the display and love it here.

Anne Katrine, Norway

La 61ª edizione della principale fiera indiana dedicata all'arredamento e al design si terrà a febbraio con un'attenzione speciale al settore furniture

L'India si prepara a consolidare la propria posizione nel mercato globale dell'arredamento con la 61ª edizione dell'IHGF Delhi Fair, in programma dal 14 al 18 febbraio 2026 presso l'India Expo Centre di Greater Noida. Quest'anno la manifestazione punta i riflettori sul settore furniture, con spazi espositivi ampliati e padiglioni dedicati esclusivamente ai brand indiani del mobile.

UN'OPPORTUNITÀ STRATEGICA PER IL SETTORE

"Il mobile è un segmento che sta registrando una crescente domanda internazionale, mentre i mercati ampliano il sourcing di prodotti per la casa e lifestyle dall'India", ha dichiarato il Dr. Neeraj Khanna, presidente dell'EPCH (Export Promotion Council for Handicrafts). L'iniziativa nasce dall'esigenza di creare un'unica destinazione di sourcing che riunisce la produzione mobiliare di tutto il subcontinente, includendo i principali hub manifatturieri e cluster produttivi del paese.
